

Correcção do primeiro teste de Inglês

11.º A

I

A.

1. In recent years ecotourism has become very popular with growth rates increasing every year.
2. Concerned with the dangers that tourism represents, the United Nations has established 2002 as the International Year of Ecotourism in order to promote sustainable touristic practices.
3. In order to prepare for the International Year of Ecotourism, SIDS decided to look for successful practices of ecotourism in small islands.

B.

1. a way of visiting places without breaking their natural balance
2. very harmful practices
3. adjusted to the established patterns
4. anxious to

C.

1. Tourism can endanger nature and the environment when it is not planned in accordance with the balance of nature.
2. Two criteria that successful ecotourism is required to meet are that it must combine natural and cultural tourism and it must involve local populations in the program.
3. Organisations reacted very well to their contact and they were eager to show what they had already done.
4. The ultimate goal of ecotourism is sustainable development, conservation and education.

II

A. Future forms:

1. Discovery Channel will broadcast or is going to broadcast the documentary soon.
2. Yesterday I bought that documentary on DVD.
3. Discovery Channel releases documentaries about environmental issues every year.
4. Now the whole world is trying to do something to protect the environment.

B. Conditional sentences.

1. If British people were worried about the environment, they wouldn't be considered the worst people at recycling.
2. If I were you, I would take these bottles to the bottle bank.
3. If we hadn't carried unnecessary loads, our fuel consumption wouldn't have increased.
4. If the population hadn't grown up so much, some resources wouldn't have become extinct.

III

A.

Done in class.